

BROWN BAG LUNCH SERIES FROM THE SMITHSONIAN CONTINUES

Additional live Smithsonian American Art Museum presentations have been scheduled at the library as a continuing part of a two year project entitled "A Sense of Place"

The August 28 program title is "America's Art". This interactive teleconference is open to the public at no charge. The program will run from 12:00 noon to 1:00 p.m. in the Albee Room of the City Library, 8 S.W. 8th, Milton-Freewater. Bring a brown bag lunch, or if you don't want to bring your own lunch, grab a take-out lunch from a local restaurant, including the snack bar in the library lobby.

The programs are provided by Libraries of Eastern Oregon (LEO) through a grant from the Institute of Museum and Library Services.

Future SAAM series have been scheduled for the dates listed below. All programs will be held in the Albee Room of the City Library from noon to 1:00 p.m.
